Dear Claude,

Thanks for your email and hope you're great! :)
My vote is that smoking anywhere in the outdoor areas is perfectly fine (front, balconies, roof).

Best,

Hi Tiiu-

The City is requiring buildings to adopt and post a smoking policy for the building.

Whatever the policy is has to be passed by 2/3 vote of unit owners in number and aggregate of shares.

So what do you think?

Some of the questions are:

No smoking restrictions at all?

Smoking in units?

Smoking on roof?

Smoking in front (25 feet)?

Smoking on balconies?

Smoking in lobby?

The Board has to present a policy to unit owners that has a fair chance of being accepted.
