534 West 42ND Condominium:

The New York City Department of Finance (Department of Finance) has referred your delinquent account for outstanding and unpaid OATH-adjudicated judgment(s) (formerly known as Environmental Control Board or ECB judgment(s)) to I.C. System, Inc., a collection agency. The outstanding judgment(s) are listed on the back of this statement.

Because interest on the judgment(s) accrues at the rate of 9% a year until paid in full, the amount due on the day you make payment may be greater than the "balance due" amount listed above. Therefore, if you pay the balance shown in the account summary, an adjustment may be necessary, in which case we will inform you of any remaining balance after payment is received. If you have questions about the amount you owe, please call us at 833-665-1962.

If you wish to enter into a payment plan agreement for OATH-ECB judgment(s), please submit your request at www.nyc.gov/contractECB. For detailed information on OATH-ECB payment plans please visit the Department of Finance website at <https://www.nyc.gov/site/finance/taxes/property-payment-plan-for-ecb-judgment-debt.page> for detailed information on the various payment plan options, requirements, and payment. All OATH-ECB judgment(s) payment plan agreements are entered into directly with the Department of Finance.

Please tear off the bottom portion of this letter and return it with your payment or see reverse side for other payment options.

Sincerely,
 Barbara Miller

NOTICE TO JUDGMENT DEBTOR OR OBLIGOR

Money or property belonging to you may have been taken or held in order to satisfy a judgment or order which has been entered against you. Read this carefully.

YOU MAY BE ABLE TO GET YOUR MONEY BACK

State and federal laws prevent certain money or property from being taken to satisfy judgments or orders. Such money or property is said to be "exempt". The following is a partial list of money which may be exempt:

1. Supplemental security income, (SSI);
2. Social security;
3. Public assistance (welfare);
4. Spousal support, maintenance (alimony) or child support;
5. Unemployment benefits;
6. Disability benefits;
7. Workers' compensation benefits;
8. Public or private pensions;
9. Veterans benefits;
10. Ninety percent of your wages or salary earned in the last sixty days;
11. Three thousand ($3,000.00) dollars of any bank account containing statutorily exempt payments that were deposited electronically or by direct deposit within the last forty-five days, including, but not limited to, your social security, supplemental security income, veterans benefits, public assistance, workers' compensation, unemployment insurance, public or private pensions, railroad retirement benefits, black lung benefits, or child support payments;
12. Railroad retirement;
13. Black lung benefits; and
14. COVID-19 stimulus relief for individuals and families with children.

If you think that any of your money that has been taken or held is exempt, you must act promptly because the money may be applied to the judgment or order. If you claim that any of your money that has been taken or held is exempt, you may contact the person sending this notice.

Also, YOU MAY CONSULT AN ATTORNEY, INCLUDING ANY FREE LEGAL SERVICES ORGANIZATION IF YOU QUALIFY. You can also go to court without an attorney to get your money back. Bring this notice with you when you go. You are allowed to try to prove to a judge that your money is exempt from collection under New York civil practice law and rules, sections fifty-two hundred twenty-two-a, fifty-two hundred thirty-nine and fifty-two hundred forty. If you do not have a lawyer, the clerk of the court may give you forms to help you prove your account contains exempt money that the creditor cannot collect. The law (New York civil practice law and rules, article four and sections fifty-two hundred thirty-nine and fifty-two hundred forty) provides a procedure for determination of a claim to an exemption.
