We updated our Deposit Account and Wire Transfer Agreements

The following changes were made November 11, 2018:

- We published an updated version of our Deposit Account Agreement. You can get the latest agreement at chase.com/disclosures, at a branch or by request when you call us. Here's what you should know:
 - We added a section to describe our new Autosave feature, which allows you to make automatic transfers from your checking account to your savings account. (New section in General Account Terms, Section B, Autosave feature)
 - We no longer charge an Extended Overdraft Fee. (General Account Terms, Section C, Insufficient Funds and Returned Item fees)
 - We added an address for reporting a dispute if you believe we provided incomplete or inaccurate information about your account to a consumer reporting agency. (New section in General Account Terms, Section I, Disputing information reported to a consumer reporting agency)
- We updated our Wire Transfer Agreement, here's what you should know:
 - You will still receive email notifications on the status of your wire transfer. However, we added that if we're unable to send an email due to system failures or outages, it's your responsibility to monitor your account for the status of your wire transfer.
 - We clarified that you should expect your foreign exchange rate to be less favorable than rates quoted online or in publications.

Please call us at the number at the top of this statement if you have any questions.

IN CASE OF ERRORS OR QUESTIONS ABOUT YOUR ELECTRONIC FUNDS TRANSFERS: Call us at 1-866-564-2262 or write us at the address on the front of this statement (non-personal accounts contact Customer Service) immediately if you think your statement or receipt is incorrect or if you need more information about a transfer listed on the statement or receipt. For personal accounts only: We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the problem or error appeared. Be prepared to give us the following information:

- Your name and account number
- The dollar amount of the suspected error
- A description of the error or transfer you are unsure of, why you believe it is an error, or why you need more information.

We will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days (or 20 business days for new accounts) to do this, we will credit your account for the amount you think is in error so that you will have use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation

IN CASE OF ERRORS OR QUESTIONS ABOUT NON-ELECTRONIC TRANSACTIONS: Contact the bank immediately if your statement is incorrect or if you need more information about any non-electronic transactions (checks or deposits) on this statement. If any such error appears, you must notify the bank in writing no later than 30 days after the statement was made available to you. For more complete details, see the Account Rules and Regulations or other applicable account agreement that governs your account.
