Cold winter, higher bills. Energy supply prices have skyrocketed due to the extreme cold, and you're probably using more energy to stay warm. Spread your costs over 12 months to avoid seasonal spikes. Sign up for Level Payment at conEd.com/managemybill.

The gas portion of this bill has been estimated. We are sorry we were unable to read your meter on your scheduled meter reading date due to adverse weather conditions and resultant restoration activities. Please be assured this bill will be adjusted as necessary when we obtain the next actual meter reading date.

This is an estimated bill because we did not have access to the meters. Our records show that you control the access. If this is incorrect, please call us so we can adjust our records. Accurate information will help us to read your meters and to avoid future estimated bills, notices and possible penalties.

The demand shown in the DEMAND REGISTRATION portion of this bill exceeded 10 kilowatts (kW). Under the provisions of your current rate, if the demand exceeds 10 kW on the next bill, your account will be changed to a demand rate and your future bills will include a demand charge. This may cause your billing to be lower, but it could also be higher, depending on your actual usage.

This electric bill is for 60 days which covers the dates shown in the Billing Detail Section.

Your electricity charges

These charges are for the electricity you used (supply) and getting that electricity to you (delivery). Rates are based on a 30 day period. When your billing period is more or less than 30 days, we prorate your bill accordingly.

Electricity you used during this 32 day billing period from Nov 03, 2014 to Dec 05, 2014

Rate: EL9 General Large Meter# 8465791

We measure your electricity by how many kilowatt hours (kWh) you use. One kWh will light a 100 watt bulb for 10 hours. The meter multiplier is the factor by which the meter reading difference is multiplied to determine your usage. Demand or kW is the highest amount of electric usage in any half hour during the billing period.
