RE: Vicki Simon, 6 Edwards Lane, Glen Cove, NY

via: Certified Mail Return Receipt Requested

Dear Ms. New:

This letter is to confirm our position relating to my mother's contractual relationship with Slomin's regarding oil delivery.

Robin, a representative from your company, faxed me a document on January 6, 2017 which she represented as a contract between Slomin's and Vicki Simon. The document is not properly executed. It bears only the first 3 letters of Vicki Simon's first name in block style. In addition, Vicki Simon did not write those three letters. The contract does not contain her social security number or any other information that is not public knowledge which might prove the identity of the person who wrote those three letters.

My mother has unequivocally stated that she did not sign that or any other contract with Slomin's either on paper or electronic tablet.

There are some notices of oil delivery and invoices for same in her possession for which we have no signed delivery receipt showing that the oil was in fact delivered.

Since we spoke on Friday, and you assured me that someone in authority to discuss this matter would contact me, and no one has, I consider the matter closed.

Do not under any circumstances permit oil deliveries to her home or further contact her for any reason whatsoever.

Any discussion relating to this matter should be directed to myself:

Finally, it is our right under New York State law to terminate this type of contract regardless whether Vicki Simon signed it or not. We hereby do so.

Sincerely,

Claude Simon
