Dear 160 Madison Avenue Owners Corp.:

On May 31, 2012, we discussed the findings in the enclosed report and you indicated agreement.

What to do if you agree

To agree with the examination changes on this report, you need to sign, date, and return one of the enclosed Examination Reports by the response date shown above. If you filed a joint return for this tax period, both taxpayers must sign the report.

If the report shows that you owe additional tax, please include payment for the full amount to limit penalty and interest charges to your account. Payments should be made payable to the United States Treasury. We have enclosed an envelope for your convenience. (Please note: This report may not reflect the results of later examinations of partnerships, "S" Corporations, trusts, etc., in which you have an interest. Changes made to those tax returns could affect your tax.)

What to do if you do not agree

If you don't agree with the changes shown in the Examination Report, please contact the examiner by the response date listed above. The enclosed Publication 3498, The Examination Process, explains actions you should take when you do not agree with the examiner's proposed changes.

How to contact us

If you have any questions, please contact the person whose name and telephone number are shown in the heading of this letter.

Sincerely yours,

Mahfuzur Rahman
Revenue Agent

The Internal Revenue Service has agreements with state tax agencies under which information about federal tax, including increases or decreases, is exchanged with the states. If this change affects the amount of your state income tax, you should amend your state return by filing the necessary forms.

You may be subject to backup withholding if you underreport your interest, dividend, or patronage dividend income you earned and do not pay the required tax. The IRS may order backup withholding (withholding of a percentage of your dividend and/or interest income) if the tax remains unpaid after it has been assessed and four notices have been issued to you over a 120-day period.
