

The four Simon siblings (clockwise from upper left) Louis, Sylvia, Abe and John, all served in the military during WWII. Louis Simon was a Sergeant in the Army and participated in the Battle of the Bulge in 1944. Sylvia Brano née Simon joined the newly created Women's Army Corps (WAC) in order to bring her three brothers home safely. She was a Sergeant, SGT-10 and was stationed in Texas. Abe Simon was a Navy Radioman who was in the first wave on Omaha Beach in Normandy on D-Day. John Simon was in the 435th Fighter Squadron. He was involved in the air offensive in the Atlantic and Normandy and received the American Services Medal and the European-African-Middle Eastern Campaign Service Medal.

Jewish War Veterans of the USA

NOVEMBER SIGNIFICANT HISTORIC DATES

- November 8, 1942, Invasion of North Africa begins
- November 9, 1918, German Kaiser Wilhelm II abdicates
- November 9, 1989, Berlin Wall falls
- November 10, 1775, U.S. Marine Corps organized
- November 11, 1918, WWI ends
- November 19, 1863, Lincoln's Gettysburg address
- November 22, 1963, President Kennedy assassinated
- November 23, 1942, SPARS, women's branch of Coast Guard founded
- November 28, 1941 - December 1, 1941, Tehran Conference