

Robert McMillan
co-hosts 'Face- Off' on WLIW
and is an attorney
with McMillan,
Rather, Bennett and Rigano in Melville.

vell-intentioned police able to deal with beer on church property is society's failure. We are ake no mistake about t home!
ents?

Death of an Industry

No more to saunter thru the aisles
Of Woolworth's famed and special stores.
No more to greet with friendly smiles
Your neighbors on these shining floors.
How sad to see this giant fall
This landmark which has served us all.
So splendidly for all these years
One barely can contain the tears
We'll miss the bright and fragrant flowers
That decked the sidewalk in the spring
Bringing to mind the happy hours, when children we went gathering.
And now we watch with heavy heart
This great foundation torn apart
Ah, Woolworth we will miss you so Let's lower the flag
Let's toll the bell.
Again, I say you've served us well.

Vicky C. Simon