Citi Investment Research & Analysis ("CIRA") and third-party research ratings may be shown for certain securities. All research ratings represent "opinions" and are not representations or guarantees of performance. Because the research report contains more complete information regarding the analyst's opinions, analysis, and rating, you should read the entire research report and not infer its contents from the rating. CIRA's stock recommendations will include an investment rating and an optional risk rating to highlight high risk stocks.

Risk rating: takes into account both price volatility and fundamental criteria. Stocks will either have no risk rating or a High risk rating assigned.

Investment Rating: CIRA's investment ratings are Buy, Neutral and Sell. Our ratings are a function of analyst expectations of expected total return ("ETR") and risk. ETR is the sum of the forecast price appreciation (or depreciation) plus the dividend yield for a stock within the next 12 months. The Investment rating definitions are: Buy (1) ETR of 15% or more or 25% or more for High risk stocks; and Sell (3) for negative ETR. Any covered stock not assigned a Buy or a Sell is a Neutral (2). Your advisor can provide further information regarding investment ratings.

Third-party research rating have been normalized by such third party providers to a 1 (Buy), 2 (Neutral) and 3 (Sell). CIRA is not the author of, does not take responsibility for, and does not guaranty the accuracy, completeness, or timeliness of the third-party research. Your decision to buy or sell a security should be based upon your personal investment objectives and should be made only after evaluating the stock's expected performance and risk.

* Noncovered under the cost basis rules as defined below.

Securities acquired before 2011 are generally not subject to the new cost basis reporting rules set forth in the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("IRC") (incorporating amendments enacted by P.L. 110-343, the Emergency Economic Stabilization Act of 2008) and are, therefore, considered "noncovered," under the new cost basis reporting rules, and marked or denoted as such. All other securities in this section are securities which are "covered" under the new cost basis reporting rules. Securities which are "covered" under the new cost basis reporting rules are defined as securities which have been acquired on or after their "applicable date(s)" at which they are subject to the cost basis reporting rules and the adjusted basis will be reported to the IRS on form 1099-B for the applicable tax year in which the security is disposed.

Reporting requirements generally will be phased in over a three-year period, as follows:

- Stock in a corporation acquired on or after January 1, 2011
- Mutual funds and dividend reinvestment plan (DRP) shares acquired on or after January 1, 2012
- Other securities, principally debt securities and options, acquired on or after January 1, 2014, or later, as determined by the Secretary of the Treasury.

³ Either all or a portion of the cost basis of this security has been provided to us by you or your introducing firm and Pershing makes no representation as to the accuracy of this information.

⁵ Unrealized gains and losses are not reported for securities for which cost basis or market value is not available.

^Y This line is an aggregation of shares in this position, representing shares acquired at different times and/or dates. This summary is a sum of these shares and does not represent cost basis calculated using the average cost accounting method.

Portfolio diversification is an important element to consider when making investment decisions. Academic studies and real-world experience have shown that asset allocation is the key factor in long-term investment performance. By choosing a diversified mix of stocks, bonds and other asset classes, investors may create the portfolios that best match their financial goals and tolerance for risk. Concentrated positions entail greater risks than a diversified portfolio. A concentrated position may be defined as the significant presence of a single security, securities of a single issuer, sector or a certain class of security in an investor's portfolio. No single formula or percentage of a particular security or class of securities suits all investors. If you wish to discuss portfolio diversification in further detail, please contact your Financial Advisor.

Pricing

This section includes the net market value of the securities in your account on a settlement date basis, including short positions, at the close of the statement period. The market prices, unless otherwise noted, have been obtained from independent vendor services, which we believe to be reliable. Market prices do not constitute a bid or an offer, and may differ from the actual sale price. Securities for which a price is not available are marked "N/A" and are omitted from the Total.

THE AS OF PRICE DATE ONLY APPEARS WHEN THE PRICE DATE DOES NOT EQUAL THE STATEMENT DATE.

Estimated Annual Figures

The estimated annual income (EAI) and estimated annual yield (EAY) figures are estimates and for informational purposes only. These figures are not considered to be a forecast or guarantee of future results. These figures are computed using information from providers believed to be reliable; however, no assurance can be made as to the accuracy. Since interest and dividend rates are subject to change at any time, and may be affected by current and future economic, political, and business conditions, they should not be relied on for making investment, trading, or tax decisions. These figures assume that the position quantities, interest and dividend rates, and prices remain constant. A capital gain or return of principal may be included in the figures for certain securities, thereby overstating them. Refer to www.pershing.com/business_continuity.html for specific details as to formulas used to calculate the figures. Accrued interest represents interest earned but not yet received.

Reinvestment

The dollar amount of Mutual Fund distributions, Money Market Fund dividend income, Bank Deposit interest income, or dividends for other securities shown on your statement may have been reinvested. You will not receive confirmation of these reinvestments. Upon written request to your financial institution, information pertaining to these transactions, including the time of execution and the name of the person from whom your security was purchased, may be obtained. In dividend reinvestment transactions, Pershing acts as your agent and receives payment for order flow.

Option Disclosure

Information with respect to commissions and other charges incurred in connection with the execution of option transactions has been included in confirmations previously furnished to you. A summary of this information is available to you promptly upon your written request directed to your introducing firm. In order to assist your introducing firm in maintaining current background and financial information concerning your option accounts, please promptly advise them in writing of any material change in your investment objectives or financial situation. Expiring options which are valuable are exercised automatically pursuant to the exercise by exception procedure of the Options Clearing Corporation. Additional information regarding this procedure is available upon written request to your introducing firm.

Foreign Currency Transactions

Pershing may execute foreign currency transactions as principal for your account. Pershing may automatically convert foreign currency to or from U.S. dollars for dividends and similar corporate action transactions unless you instruct your financial organization otherwise. Pershing's currency conversion rate will not exceed the highest interbank conversion rate identified from customary banking sources on the conversion date or the prior business day, increased by up to 1%, unless a particular rate is required by applicable law. Your financial organization may also increase the currency conversion rate. This conversion rate may differ from rates in effect on the date you executed a transaction, incurred a charge, or received a credit. Transactions converted by agents (such as depositories) will be billed at the rates such agents use.

Proxy Vote

Securities not fully paid for in your margin account may be lent by Pershing to itself or others in accordance with the terms outlined in the Margin Agreement. The right to vote your shares held on margin may be reduced by the amount of shares on loan. The FDIC Insured Bank Deposits are not securities and are not covered by the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC). The Bank Deposits at each bank are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) up to $250,000 for each category of legal ownership including individual retirement accounts and certain other self directed retirement accounts. Please review this in connection with other deposits you may have at each respective bank.

Messages

The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) provides insurance on deposits up to $250,000 per account owner, per bank. However, the Bank Deposit Program (BDP) applies certain limits to the maximum deposit amount permitted in certain banks which may be below the maximum FDIC insurance limits for certain types of accounts. In those instances where an account type exceeds the maximum FDIC insurance limits, those deposits will be uninsured. Balances maintained in Deposit Accounts at each affiliated program bank are not protected by the Securities Investor Protection Corporation ("SIPC") or any excess of SIPC coverage provided by Citigroup Global Markets Inc or Pershing LLC.

Although a money market mutual fund seeks to preserve the value of your investment at $1 per share, it is possible to lose money by investing in a money market mutual fund. Shares of a money market mutual fund or the balance of a bank deposit product held in your brokerage account may be liquidated upon request with the proceeds credited to your brokerage account. Please see the money market mutual fund's prospectus or the bank deposit product's disclosure document or contact your advisor for additional information.
