For your protection, this form may show only the last four digits of your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), or adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN). However, the issuer has reported your complete identification number to the IRS and, where applicable, to state and/or local governments.

Nominees

If this form includes amounts belonging to another person, you are considered a nominee recipient. You must file Forms 1099-DIV, 1099-B, 1099-INT and/or 1099-OID, as appropriate with the IRS for each of the other owners to show their share of the income, and you must furnish the appropriate Form 1099 to each owner. File Copy A of the form with the IRS. Furnish Copy B to each owner. List yourself as the "payer" and the other owner(s) as the "recipient." File the new Form 1099 with Form 1096, Annual Summary and Transmittal of U.S. Information Returns, with the Internal Revenue Service Center for your area. On Form 1096 list yourself as the "filer." A husband or wife is not required to file a nominee return to show amounts owned by the other. See the 2013 General Instructions for Certain Information Returns.

Form 1099-OID. If you bought or sold an obligation during the year and you are not a nominee, you are not required to issue or file Form 1099-OID showing the OID or stated interest allocable to the seller/buyer of the obligation.

1099-DIV Instructions for Recipient

The amount shown may be dividends a corporation paid directly to you as a participant (or beneficiary of a participant) in an employee stock ownership plan (ESOP). Report it as a dividend on your Form 1040/1040A but treat it as a plan distribution, not as investment income, for any other purpose.

Line 2a. Shows total capital gain distributions from a regulated investment company or real estate investment trust. Report the amounts shown on line 2a on Schedule D (Form 1040), line 13. But, if no amount is shown on lines 2c-2d and your only capital gains and losses are capital gain distributions, you may be able to report the amounts shown on line 2a on line 13 of Form 1040 (line 10 of Form 1040A) rather than Schedule D. But if you get back all your cost (or other basis), report future distributions as capital gains. See Pub. 550, Investment Income and Expenses.

Line 4. See "Backup Withholding" section.

Line 5. Shows your share of expenses of a nonpublicly offered regulated investment company, generally a nonpublicly offered mutual fund. 1099-OID Instructions for Recipient

Original issue discount (OID) is the excess of an obligation's stated redemption price at maturity over its issue price (acquisition price for a stripped bond or coupon). OID is taxable as interest over the life of the obligation. If you are the holder of an OID obligation, generally you must include an amount of OID in your gross income each year you hold the obligation. Obligations that may have OID include a bond, debenture, note, certificate, or other evidence of indebtedness having a term of more than 1 year. For example, the OID rules may apply to certificates of deposit (CDs), time deposits, bonus savings plans, and other deposit arrangements, especially if the payment of interest is deferred until maturity. In addition, the OID rules apply to Treasury inflation-protected securities. See Pub. 550, Investment Income and Expenses, for more information.

Line 1. Shows the OID on the obligation for the part of the year you owned it. Report the amount on line 1 as interest income on your income tax return. However, depending on the type of debt instrument, the issue or acquisition date, and other factors (for example, if you paid acquisition or bond premium, or the obligation is a stripped bond or coupon), you may have to figure the correct amount of OID to report on your return. See Pub. 1212, Guide to Original Issue Discount (OID) Instruments, for details on how to figure the correct OID.

Line 2. Shows other interest on this obligation for the year, which is an amount separate from the OID. If you held the obligation the entire year, report this amount as interest income on your tax return. If you disposed of the obligation or acquired it from another holder during the year, see Pub. 550 for reporting instructions. If there is an amount on both lines 2 and 8, the amount on line 2 is interest on a U.S. Treasury obligation and is exempt from state and local income taxes.

Line 3. Shows interest or principal forfeited if you withdrew the money before the maturity date of the obligation, such as from a CD. You may deduct this amount to figure your adjusted gross income on your income tax return. See the instructions for Form 1040 to see where to take the deduction.

Line 4. See "Backup Withholding" section.

Line 5. Shows the foreign tax paid. You may be able to claim this tax as a deduction on your Form 1040. See your Form 1040 instructions.

Line 6. Shows the country or U.S. possession to which the foreign tax was paid.

Line 7. Shows the identification number (CUSIP number) or description of the obligation (may include the stock exchange, issuer, coupon rate, and year of maturity).

Line 8. Shows OID on a U.S. Treasury obligation for the part of the year you owned it. Report this amount as interest income on your federal income tax return, and see Pub. 1212 to figure any appropriate adjustments to this amount. This OID is exempt from state and local income taxes and is not included on line 1.

Line 9. Any amount shown is your share of investment expenses of a single-class REMIC. If you file Form 1040, you may deduct these expenses on the "Other expenses" line of Schedule A (Form 1040) subject to the 2% limit. This amount is included on line 2.

Lines 10-12. State income tax withheld reporting.

1099-B Instructions for Recipient

Brokers and barter exchanges must report proceeds from transactions to you and the IRS on Form 1099-B. Reporting is also required when your broker knows or has reason to know that a corporation in which you own stock has had a reportable change in control or capital structure. You may be required to recognize gain from the receipt of cash, stock, or other property that was exchanged for the corporation's stock. If your broker reported this type of transaction to you, the corporation is identified in column 8.

CUSIP Number. For broker transactions, may show the CUSIP (Committee on Uniform Security Identification Procedures) number or other applicable identifying number of the item reported.

Column 1a. Shows the trade date of the sale or exchange. For short sales, the date shown is the date the security was delivered to close the short sale. For aggregate reporting on line 9 through 12, no entry will be present.

Column 1b. This column may be blank if line 6 states noncovered or if the securities sold were acquired on a variety of dates. For short sales, the date shown is the date you acquired the security delivered to close the short sale.

Column 2a. Shows the aggregate cash proceeds from transactions involving stocks, bonds, other debt obligations, commodities, or forward contracts. May show the proceeds from the disposition of your interest(s) in a widely held fixed investment trust. May also show the aggregate amount of cash and the fair market value of any stock or other property received in a reportable change in control or capital structure arising from the corporate transfer of property to a foreign corporation. Losses on forward contracts are shown in parentheses. This column does not include proceeds from regulated futures contracts. The broker must indicate whether the sales price or the sales price less commissions (including transfer taxes) and option premiums was reported to the IRS. Report this amount on Form 8949 or on Schedule D (whichever is applicable) as explained in the instructions for Schedule D.

Line 2b. If checked, you cannot take a loss on your tax return based on gross proceeds from a reportable change in control or capital structure reported on line 2a. Do not report this loss on Form 8949 or Schedule D. The broker should advise you of any losses on a separate statement.

Column 3. Shows the cost or other basis of securities sold. If line 6 states noncovered, column 3 may be blank. See the Form 8949 instructions, Schedule D instructions, or Pub. 550 for details.

Line 4. See "Backup Withholding" section.

Line 5. Shows the amount of nondeductible loss in a wash sale transaction. For details on wash sales, see the Schedule D (Form 1040) instructions and Pub. 550.

Line 6. If noncovered, the securities sold were noncovered securities and columns 1b, 3, and lines 1c and 5 may be blank. Generally a noncovered security means: a security other than stock; stock purchased before 2011; stock in most mutual funds and other regulated investment companies purchased before 2012; and stock purchased in or transferred to a dividend reinvestment plan before 2012.

Line 8. Shows a brief description of the item or service for which the proceeds is being reported. For regulated futures contracts and forward contracts, "RFC" or other appropriate description must be shown. For a corporation that had a reportable change in control or capital structure, this may show the class of stock as C (common), P (preferred), or O (other).

Regulated Futures Contracts (Lines 9 Through 12) :

Line 9. Shows the profit or (loss) realized on regulated futures or foreign currency contracts closed during 2013.

Line 10. Shows any year-end adjustment to the profit or (loss) shown on line 9 due to open contracts on December 31, 2012.

Line 11. Shows the unrealized profit or (loss) on open contracts held in your account on December 31, 2013. These are considered closed out as of that date. This will become an adjustment reported as unrealized profit or (loss) on open contracts-12/31/2013 in 2014.

Line 12. Lines 9, 10 and 11 are all used to figure the aggregate profit or (loss) on regulated futures or foreign currency contracts for the year. Include this amount on your 2013 Form 6781.

Lines 13-15. Shows state income tax withheld.
