1. Access to the safe may be had only by such officers of the Lessee or other persons as shall be authorized by resolution of the Board of Directors or other governing body of the Lessee, a copy of which, certified in a manner acceptable to the Lessor, shall be filed with the Lessor. The authority of any such officer or person to have access to said safe shall be deemed to remain in full force and effect until a similarly certified copy of a resolution of said board or other governing body revoking the same shall be filed with the Lessor.

2. The Lessee hereby agrees to indemnify and save harmless the Lessor from and against any and all claims made against the Lessor by reason of any act of any officer or person authorized by the Lessee to have access to the safe.

3. The Lessor shall be deemed to possess and is hereby granted all rights and remedies accorded lessors of safe deposit facilities by the Banking Law of the State of New York as the same may be amended from time to time, including, but not limited to, provisions concerning access to any safe, and concerning the right to open, remove and dispose of the contents of any safe, the rental of which is one year or more in arrears, or the contents of which are not removed within thirty (30) days after the termination of this lease for any reason other than the non-payment of rent.

4. The Lessor may terminate this lease and require the vacating and surrender of the safe and of the keys and combination thereof at any time upon not less than fifteen (15) days notice sent by ordinary mail to the Lessee. Upon the safe being vacated and the keys and combination, if any, being surrendered pursuant to such notice, the Lessor will return to the Lessee the pro-rata proportion for the unexpired time, of any rental paid in advance. In the event of the failure to vacate and surrender the safe pursuant to said notice, the Lessor may, without incurring any liability to the Lessee, remove the contents of the safe to any other location in the State of New York and hold the same for the account, but at the risk and expense, of the Lessee.

It is expressly agreed that the duty of the Lessor with respect to any such securities, jewelry, valuable papers, and precious metals is limited to the exercise of ordinary care, and that under no circumstances shall the Lessor be liable for the loss or destruction of any other property, including money, placed in said safe. The lessee acknowledges that the lessor does not insure the contents of the leased safe.

8. In case the Lessor receives any legal process or other notice which affects or in its opinion may affect the safe or the property therein or alleged to be contained therein or the right of access thereto, the Lessor without incurring any liability to the lessee, may suspend the right of access until the Lessor, in its sole discretion, shall be satisfied that such process or notice has been vacated, set aside or otherwise disposed of.

9. The Lessor and the Lessee waive trial by jury in any action or proceeding or counterclaim arising out of or relating to access to the safe, its contents, or any other matter relating to this lease.

10. The Lessee shall abide by all such rules and regulations concerning the means and hours of access to the safe, the identification of all persons seeking access to the safe, the payment of fees to replace the lock and keys of the safe and generally concerning the means and methods of carrying out this lease as may from time to time be prescribed by the Lessor.

11. The Lessee covenants and agrees to pay the rental as herein provided for the initial term and at a rental as determined by the Lessor for each renewal term payable in advance, and to comply with and be bound by all of the terms and conditions above set forth, and further agrees that all notices to the Lessee in connection herewith may be sent to the mailing address shown above unless the Lessee instructs the Lessor in writing to change such mailing address.
