Recipient's identification number

For your protection, this form may show only the last four digits of your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), or adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN). However, the issuer has reported your complete identification number to the IRS and, where applicable, to state and/or local governments.

Account number

May show an account or other unique number the payer assigned to distinguish your account.

Nominees

If this form includes amounts belonging to another person, you are considered a nominee recipient. You must file Forms 1099-DIV, 1099-B, 1099-INT and/or 1099-OID, as appropriate with the IRS for each of the other owners to show their share of the income, and you must furnish the appropriate Form 1099 to each owner. File Copy A of the form with the IRS. Furnish Copy B to each owner. List yourself as the "payer" and the other owner(s) as the "recipient." File the new Form 1099 with Form 1096, Annual Summary and Transmittal of U.S. Information Returns, with the Internal Revenue Service Center for your area. On Form 1096 list yourself as the "filer." A husband or wife is not required to file a nominee return to show amounts owned by the other. See the 2013 General Instructions for Certain Information Returns.

Form 1099-OID. If you bought or sold an obligation during the year and you are not a nominee, you are not required to issue or file Form 1099-OID showing the OID or stated interest allocable to the seller/buyer of the obligation.

Line 4. See "Backup Withholding" section.

Line 5. Shows your share of expenses of a nonpublicly offered regulated investment company, generally a nonpublicly offered mutual fund.
