Tektil business is not active much since closing the mill in 2010. What I do does not require my presence in New York much. We are down to 3 employees (long time) Real Estate is passive income. I don't need to do much unless buying or selling. I mostly work on my house for health and to save money.

Taxpayer certification:

I declare that the above statements are true, correct, and complete to the best of my knowledge and belief.
