To contact us: 844-875-3420

What you can do

Work with your assigned private collection agency to resolve your overdue account

The private collection agency will maintain the security and privacy of your tax information. Before assisting you, the agency will:

- Ask you to provide your name and address of record, and
- Perform two-party verification by asking you for the first five numbers of your taxpayer authentication number 2312930359. The private collection agency will then provide the subsequent five numbers.

Keep this notice for your records. You'll need information from it to complete the two-party verification.

Or you can pay your balance now

Pay online. Visit IRS.gov/Payments and pay your balance online. It's fast, secure, and you'll receive instant confirmation of your payment.

- Pay directly from your bank account, credit or debit card, or digital wallet.

Pay by mail. Make your payment payable to the United States Treasury.

- Include your business name, employer identification number, and the tax form and period on your payment.
- Send it to the Internal Revenue Service, Kansas City, MO 64999-0010.

We'll never ask you to pay using any form of pre-paid card or online gift card.
