Fairlane Vrtx Inc:

The NYC Department of Finance (Department of Finance) has referred your unpaid docketed tax warrant judgment(s) to I.C. System, Inc. to collect.

Your past due tax warrant judgment(s) owed to the Department of Finance is seriously delinquent.

The consequences of not paying the judgment(s) cannot be postponed. To resolve this, you must pay your balance in full.

To make your payment visit nyc.gov/citypay or write your account number on your check or money order and make it payable to NYC Department of Finance. Include the bottom portion of the letter with your payment. See reverse side for additional payment options.

Sincerely,
Barbara Miller

We are a debt collector attempting to collect a debt and any information obtained will be used for that purpose.

Payment Options: You may remit payment using the attached coupon directly to the NYC Department of Finance. Payment can also be made online at nyc.gov/OCAquickpay.

If you wish to enter into a business tax payment plan agreement, please visit the New York City Department of Finance business tax payment plan website at eServices; www.eServices.dof.gov for detailed information on the various payment plan options and requirements. All business tax payment plan agreements are entered into directly with the Department of Finance.

PAY ONLINE: Access the Department of Finance website at www.nyc.gov/citypay and follow the instructions. Payment can be made by e-check, credit, or debit card. There is a small service fee per transaction for credit and debit card payments.

If you are a corporation making an electronic check (e-Check)/ACH payment: Please contact your banking institution to provide them with the appropriate ACH company ID (6136400434) and name (New York City Department of Finance) to allow for the removal of any ACH debit block which may affect the processing of your payment.

Please note that if your payment is returned unpaid by your bank, the Department of Finance may send you a bill for the amount due, which may include additional charges, such as penalties and interest. Assistance for the hearing impaired: TTY 212-504-4115

Obtaining Additional Judgment Information
The Department of Finance's online e-Services portal can be accessed by the CityPay website at: www.nyc.gov/citypay. The portal can be used to view outstanding tax balances, obtain additional details, and submit inquiries directly to the Department of Finance. Furthermore, the Department of Finance's Collection Department can be contacted at 212-440-5300, option 3 if additional assistance is still needed.

NOTICE TO JUDGMENT DEBTOR OR OBLIGOR

Money or property belonging to you may have been taken or held in order to satisfy a judgment or order which has been entered against you. Read this carefully.

YOU MAY BE ABLE TO GET YOUR MONEY BACK

State and federal laws prevent certain money or property from being taken to satisfy judgments or orders. Such money or property is said to be "exempt". The following is a partial list of money which may be exempt:

1. Supplemental security income, (SSI);
2. Social security;
3. Public assistance (welfare);
4. Spousal support, maintenance (alimony) or child support;
5. Unemployment benefits;
6. Disability benefits;
7. Workers' compensation benefits;
8. Public or private pensions;
9. Veterans benefits;
10. Ninety percent of your wages or salary earned in the last sixty days;
11. Three thousand ($3,000.00) dollars of any bank account containing statutorily exempt payments that were deposited electronically or by direct deposit within the last forty-five days, including, but not limited to, your social security, supplemental security income, veterans benefits, public assistance, workers' compensation, unemployment insurance, public or private pensions, railroad retirement benefits, black lung benefits, or child support payments;
12. Railroad retirement;
13. Black lung benefits; and
14. COVID-19 stimulus relief for individuals and families with children.

If you think that any of your money that has been taken or held is exempt, you must act promptly because the money may be applied to the judgment or order. If you claim that any of your money that has been taken or held is exempt, you may contact the person sending this notice.

Also, YOU MAY CONSULT AN ATTORNEY, INCLUDING ANY FREE LEGAL SERVICES ORGANIZATION IF YOU QUALIFY. You can also go to court without an attorney to get your money back. Bring this notice with you when you go. You are allowed to try to prove to a judge that your money is exempt from collection under New York civil practice law and rules, sections fifty-two hundred twenty-two-a, fifty-two hundred thirty-nine and fifty-two hundred forty. If you do not have a lawyer, the clerk of the court may give you forms to help you prove your account contains exempt money that the creditor cannot collect. The law (New York civil practice law and rules, article four and sections fifty-two hundred thirty-nine and fifty-two hundred forty) provides a procedure for determination of a claim to an exemption.

NOTICE PURSUANT TO N.Y. GENERAL BUSINESS LAW 604, 604-a, 604-b

If the debt to which this letter relates was a result of being a victim of identity theft, a statement pursuant to sec. 604-a(b)(2) that he/she is a victim of identity theft and a copy of a valid police report alleging the debtor is a victim of identity theft must be submitted to I.C. System, Inc. 444 Highway 96 East, PO Box 64378, St. Paul MN 55164-0378. Complaints about our practices and procedures can be sent to the New York City Department of Finance, Collection Agency Unit, 59 Maiden Lane, 28th Floor, New York, NY 10038. You can also file a complaint online by visiting www.nyc.gov/finance and searching "collection agency complaint." To find out what required documentation must be submitted or where to file a complaint in person, or for further information and assistance, call 311 or visit any Department of Finance business center. [Outside NYC, call 212-NEW-YORK (212-639- 9675) or 212-504-4115 for the hearing-impaired.]
