Dear Henry,

I extend my sincerest congratulations to you on graduating from Sullivan West High School. Whatever the future holds for you, I offer my sincere encouragement and well-wishes. Though there may be obstacles in whatever path you choose, if you follow your passions, have faith in yourself, and chase your dreams, you can achieve great things. I hope you spend the following days joining your family and friends in celebrating this momentous occasion.

Once again, I congratulate you on your graduation and wish you nothing but the best in your future endeavors. Remember: Be bold. Be kind. Be on your way!

Best Regards,

Marcus J. Molinaro
