Responsibility for Loss or Damage

UPS's liability for loss or damage to each domestic package or international shipment is limited to $100. Unless a greater value is recorded in the declared value field of the UPS shipping system used, the shipper agrees that the released value of each package covered by this receipt is no greater than $100, which is a reasonable value under the circumstances surrounding the transportation. To increase UPS's limit of liability for loss or damage above $100, the shipper must declare a higher value and pay an additional charge. See the UPS Tariff/Terms and Conditions of Service at www.ups.com for UPS's liability limits, maximum declared values, and other terms of service. UPS does not accept for transportation and shippers are prohibited from shipping packages with a value of more than $50,000. Claims not made within nine months after delivery of the package (sixty days for international shipments), or in the case of failure to make delivery, nine months after a reasonable time for delivery has elapsed (sixty days for international shipments), shall be deemed waived. The entry of a C.O.D. amount is not a declaration of value for carriage purposes. All checks or other negotiable instruments tendered in payment of C.O.D. will be accepted by UPS at shipper's risk. UPS shall not be liable for any special, incidental, or consequential damages. All shipments are subject to the terms and conditions contained in the UPS Tariff/Terms and Conditions of Service (available at www.ups.com).
