you are correct Claude. This is our SOP # 10582 and it does reference the correct width that you request..

CAUTION: EXTERNAL SENDER

Hi Chuck-
We will put in a replacement dye order for this.
Soft hand is not a stock item for us but we can probably work it off over time. I know that rehandling is not practical.
We would appreciate it if you could arrange some dating on the billing.
There was a trial roll of this width run in December.
It was tagged on to dye order 20189 and processed under lot 29203000.
I don't recall seeing the new SOP on any paperwork.
Regards,
Claude

On this MO, it looks like the order says to use SOP02361, which looks like what we did. When the width change was noted, we should have created a new sop for this style/width. This was run on the frame with soft hand, no handbuilder was added.

Claude - do you have an outlet for this, and we can replace the MO for the correct width. I was thinking we had set up a SOP for this width.
maybe on another style??

Hi Amy-

20241 called for 3x51 3/8", 1x11" SOFT. See attached.

This packing list indicates a finished width of 54" and V10401-F54 style (FIRM?).

Was the order processed at 3x54 Firm in error?

Please advise.
