

Regarding yesterday:

She questioned the hours worked:

She does not believe that he starts at 5 a.m.

Questioned his lunch hours

He told her that he takes no lunch and eats while he works.

She remembered that John took him out for lunch on his birthday on 6/8 and again with another sales man on Tuesday 6/15 and deducted lunch hours from his pay. She told him he will have to pay taxes on this money and she will issue a 1099 tax form to the irs and him

She wants to know how many hours it will take to paint the 5th floor.

She stated that "we don't have money to waste. They don't give me more money"

Then she threatened to call Claude.

Steve responded by saying "I don't care, call him.
