Janet,

Korea shipped us this yarn on 5/20/18 which should be close to the production date—but I am checking with our plant to get actual date

Yarn was shipped to you on 6/29/18 which is when we received it here in the states

I suspect it is aging finish on yarn ends that should scour out during finishing

Thanks,
Bob

Good Morning

I sent this photo to Bob yesterday. This photo was taken on the 4th set, 2nd beam of the creel load. There are variations as you can see on the beam and too many to remove. Is this planned for a critical end use? I've seen this appearance on 15/1 before and it wasn't an issue however I wanted everyone aware of what we are seeing here.

FYI
